Co-Ordinator Dr. K. LANGESWARAN Deputy Co-Ordinator Dr. G SIVAKUMAR

VISION

- To empower students by giving them leadership opportunities, encouraging intercultural communication skills, and instilling pride in their cultural heritage.
- To envisage a university where students from diverse origins may gather to celebrate, study, and participate in significant cultural activities. Our cultural club aspires to be a
- Our university cultural club's aim is to foster a lively and inclusive campus environment that honours and encourages cultural variety.

MISSION

Promote Cultural Exchange

Our cultural club strives diligently to promote the exchange of cultural information, customs, and practises among students. We host events, workshops, and talks to promote connection and debate among students from all cultural backgrounds, developing a sense of unity and respect.

Cultural knowledge and Education

Our goal is to raise knowledge about many cultures, including their histories, traditions, and contributions. among students from all cultural backgrounds, developing a sense of unity and respect.

Encourage Diversity

We inspire a sense of pride and belonging by offering a platform for individuals to express their cultural identities, abilities, and creativity, promoting a friendly and inclusive environment for all.

Participate in Social Outreach

We believe that our cultural club act as catalyst for positive change. To address cultural misconceptions, combat prejudices, and promote social harmony with rationalisation, we actively engage in social outreach programmes, community service, and cooperation with other organisations.

Personal Development and Empowerment

The prime objective of our cultural club is to give chances for personal development and empowerment. We motivate our members to grow in their leadership qualities, cross-cultural communication skills, and global perspective. We anticipate that our activities and projects will raise cultural awareness, break down barriers, and inspire people to explore, learn from, and connect with people from other cultures.
